FRUIT GROWERS ORGANIZE.

Plan for Association Submitted at Public Meeting.

At a meeting of fruit growers, held in the commissioners' room in the court house yesterday morning, a plan of organization for fruit growers association was agreed on. County Commissioner Joseph Stanford presided. Joseph Storey of North Ogden was elected temporary secretary. Chairman Storey submitted a plan of organization, which was adopted. The name is to be the Utah Fruit Growers' association of Weber county. The control is to be in the hands of ten directors, who are to choose the officers from their number. The admission fee is $1. The object of the association is to promote the interests of fruit growers, to disseminate of fruit trees and to provide better markets for fruit, and to take other steps for the betterment of the industry.

Husband Wants Divorce.

Joseph Wangsager yesterday filed an action for divorce from his wife, Mary E. Wangsager. The couple were married in Hunzville, Weber county, June 19, 1903, and have two children, both girls. The plaintiff claims that the wife leaves him home without his consent and has failed to perform the duties of a wife, besides being cruel to him on various occasions. He owns an acre of land at Hunzville, and asks for adjudication as to the rights of this property as well as for divorce.

Bokkus Sues Southern Pacific.

George A. Bokkus, administering the estate of Nicholas Bokkus, yesterday sued the railroad company for $10,150 damages. Bokkus was killed while working on a cut-off work train Jan. 10 last and it is claimed his death was due to the carelessness of the company's employees in starting a train without warning, so that the man was precipitated to the track and killed.

Ogden Society.

The young ladies of First ward gave a leap year party Monday, Feb. 15, which proved a social as well as a financial success. The party was given at the home of Miss Edna Van Alen, 321 Third street, where Miss Carlisle Woods, assisted by Miss Amy Clay, served a delicious lunch. The main feature of the luncheon was a beautiful cake, which contained ten walnuts, wrapped in gold paper, and each small doll and a ring were baked in the cake. Mr. Leon Riley performed the carving act, and the nuts and dolls made their appearance there caused a great deal of amusement. Those present were: Misses Amy Clay, Bertha Gordon, Lizzie Evans, Elsie Hetzer, Carlisle Woods, Messrs. Walter Stevens, Leon Riley, Chester West, Meda Brewster and Glen Thompson.

Thursday evening the old folks annual party was given in the First ward hall by the amusement committee and was the most enjoyable of its style ever given in the ward. At the party 65 years of age were invited, irrespective of creed or color, and those who were unable to walk were conveyed to and from the gathering in carriages.

Mrs. Martin Cullen was hostess last Tuesday afternoon at one of the most pleasant affairs of the winter. The following ladies were present: Mesdames Andrew Budon, Becken, Borden, Barry, Francis, Fitzgerald, Giamann, Healy, Hall, Heismark, Joyce, Lindsay, McLe, McBeth, Nelson, Shuffelbarger, Smith, Williams. Mrs. Cullen was assisted in serving by her daughter, Miss Beatrice, and Miss Anderson. The lady ones at each were: Mrs. Barry, post chair; Mrs. Nelson, consolation; Miss Anne Cullen. The tally cards were carried by:

A wedding of two very popular young people occurred Wednesday afternoon at Ogden, when Miss Adella Brunscher became the wife of Oscar B. Madsen. The ceremony occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bauser, 259 Adams avenue, and was performed by President Charles E. Middleton of Weber state. Promptly at 2:30 the wedding march, played by Miss Belle Smith, was heard, and the bride was escorted into the beautifully decorated parlor by her father. The room was attended by J. A. Marshall. The ceremony, which was witnessed by members of the two families and a number

MORMON ELDER TAKES HIS LIFE

Lorenzo Crosby Shoots Himself on Train in Missouri.

HE DIES IN A HOSPITAL

HAD LETTER WRITTEN TO HIM BY SALT LAKE WOMAN.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 20.—Lorenzo Crosby, said to be an elder in the Mormon church, while en route from Atlanta, Ga., where he had been staying, shot himself on a train in Missouri, and died in a hospital here this afternoon.

Crosby was 25 years old, single, and was a member of the Mormon church. He was transferred from his home in Kansas City to a hospital here in the city where he died this afternoon about 1 o'clock.

Until Crosby was stationed at Richmond, Va., and was a member of the Virginia conference of the Mormon church. Later he was transferred to Atlanta, where he has lived until recently. Crosby was unconscious when brought to this city. In his pockets were found two letters, one signed Mollie Crosby, from Greer, Ark., and another from his wife, which indicated domestic trouble, and another signed Olive from 3rd West Fifth street, Salt Lake City.

Crosby, who is 25 years old, shot himself twice, one bullet penetrating his brain. He was treated by a railway surgeon who occupied a berth in the same car with him, but little could be done for the man. The trainmen said that there had been nothing unusual in the conduct of Crosby. He was a quiet, unassuming man.

Crosby wore clothes of a clerical cut, and carried with him a report book used by the elders in the Mormon church. Besides a pocket watch and a few other articles, his report book indicated active work for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Virginia, where he had a record of services in Atlanta, and there are indications that his stay there was brief.

The "Olive" referred to in the above dispatch is Mrs. Olive Crump, who resides with her mother at 353 West Fifth street. When seen yesterday afternoon, she was in great distress of mind, and was in communication with Crosby, Mrs. Crump said:

"I first met him in Virginia where our family used to reside. He made me a great deal of trouble, and was a long time and was well liked by all the members of my family. He always spoke in the highest terms of his wife and I am positive that he had no domestic troubles unless recently. I hardly believe that he would commit suicide as he always expressed himself as being strongly opposed to any kind of that kind."

Mrs. Crump is a divorced woman and is a recent convert to the Mormon faith. She came to Utah from Virginia about a year ago. Crosby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Crosby of Washington county, Utah. He was sent to the southern part of the state to work on the land, and has just completed his labors. He had just completed his labors. He had just completed his labors.
